NOTICE

Walter and Goldie Callihan hereby file their Notice in the above styled action set out herein below:

Walter and Goldie Callihan had filed a Complaint before the Kentucky Public Service Commission, (KPSC), on or about August, 2005. The Callihans also filed a Motion asking the KPSC to recuse themselves from any participation in the above styled action because the KPSC was then,.... and are still now defendants in an Action by the Callihans against Grayson Rural Eleetric Cooperative Corporation, (GRECC), and the KPSC including all of their agents in the United States District Court at Ashland, Kentucky.

The KPSC ignored the Motion to Recuse. Walter and Goldie Callihan also filed a Motion requesting that the KPSC order GRECC to restore their electrical power for the duration of the litigation. The KPSC ignored both said Motions and in a mock proceeding attempts now to administer. The KPSC has made the administrative remedy so harsh that the Plaintiffs can not continue in good faith to proceed any further with the KPSC because they believe they can not receive a fair hearing on December 20th, 2005.

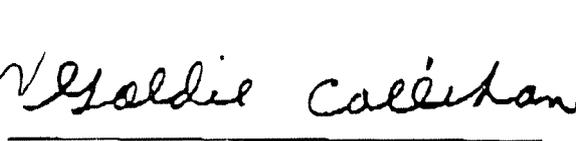

In the most recent order by the KPSC dated November 30th, 2005.... the KPSC has deliberately ignored the Callihan's Motions once again with malicious intent to harm Walter and Goldie Callihan by failing to rule upon the Callihan's Motions. It is clear that the KPSC refuses to recognize the extreme prejudice that their serving as the arbitrator of this dispute poses. Therefore, we have no choice but to withdraw our Complaint before the KPSC and we shall seek remedy forthwith in a Court of Law represented by local counsel, James Osborne.

To reiterate, the Callihans are withdrawing their Complaint before the KPSC and it must be stricken from the docket.
